

Arriving by Train

Luxembourg's central train station Gare is located close to the city's centre. Luxembourg is connected with Paris' Gar del Est by a high-speed train link (travel time 2h 05') which provides a fast connection to Paris' Charles de Gaulle (CDG) and Paris' Orly (ORY) airports. More information about this high-speed train link can be found here. Additionally, train connections exist to Belgium, including Brussels, and to Germany. An online timetable showing train connections is available following this link.

The venue of the 73rd IFALPA Conference and the conference hotels in Luxembourg's Kirchberg district can be reached from the central station by taxi or by public bus.

Taxis are available outside of the main entrance to the train station.

To travel by public bus from the central train station to the conference venue and your conference accommodation at the Sofitel Luxembourg Europe, Meliã Luxembourg, Novotel Luxembourg Kirchberg and Novotel Suites Luxembourg, take either of the following bus lines to the bus stop "Pfaffenthal-Kirchberg, Pôle d'Échange".

At this bus stop change to the tram. The tram departs from the dedicated tram stop on the other side of the street. Take any tram with destination "Luxexpo" (there is only one line departing from the train platform at "Rout Bréck – Pafendall", the one to "Luxexpo"). Alight at the first tram stop "MUDAM, Philharmonie" if you go directly to the Meliã Luxembourg or the conference venue or alight at the second tram stop "Parlament Européen" for the Sofitel Luxembourg Europe, Novotel Luxembourg Kirchberg and Novotel Suites Luxembourg.
