The amount of the applicable membership fee and the individual membership number will be communicated to each member in writing after his membership is accepted by the association. All payments shall be made by bank transfer ("ordre permanent") to the following account:

Banque et Caisse de l'Etat (BCEE): IBAN: LU14 0019 1000 4852 9000 BIC: BCEELULL

Please provide your membership number with each payment. All applicable fees must be paid in advance for each month in order to be a valid member of ALPL. The first payment should be made at the same time when informed that your membership is accepted.

The ALPL will not cover any legal costs incurred in the first six months of membership, based on the full receipt of the membership fees due for this period. Legal cost will only be covered as defined in the Legal Policy of the association based on full receipt of membership fees due.

Membership Information

Please read the following articles outlining the statutes with the ALPL - «Association Luxembourgeoise des Pilotes de Ligne a.s.b.l.» relating to the membership carefully.

The full statutes can be accessed online at www.alpl.lu and may be reviewed during business hours in the ALPL Office. After being accepted as a member of the association the full statutes will be provided with more information regarding your membership.

Should you have any question please do not hesitate to contact the ALPL Office.

Article 5: Membership

Any person wishing to become a member is required to submit an application to the Executive Board by sending a mail to that effect, either electronic, by post or in person to the association's office, and shall agree to be bound by the Statutes, pay his/her membership fees as fixed in the General Divisional Assembly and produce evidence that he/she is engaged in the pursuit, as his/her principal occupation and for an indefinite period of time, of the profession of pilot on board aircraft belonging to an airline having its registered office in Luxembourg.

Within thirty (30) days following receipt of the application, the Executive Board shall give its answer to the applicant. In case of appeal of the decision by the applicant, the Executive Board shall convene within the next thirty (30) days for a hearing with the applicant.

The honorary members of the association shall be persons upon whom that title has been bestowed in recognition of outstanding services rendered by them in furtherance of its aims. Honorary members shall be appointed by the general assembly. They shall not have the right to vote at any assembly not be eligible for membership of the executive or divisional boards.

Associate membership may be granted by the executive board to persons in possession of a valid Airline Transport Pilot's license, issued by a JAA-member State, having their residence in the Grand - Duchy of Luxembourg and/or being listed at the ADEM as unemployed pilot.

The membership fees and the rights of associate members shall be defined by the Executive Board. They shall not have the right to vote at any assembly not be eligible for membership of the executive or divisional boards.

Article 6: Resignation, Expulsion

A. Resignation:

Any member can resign from the association by sending a mail to that effect by post to his/her Divisional Board or to the Executive Board. In such a case, the resignation will become effective at the end of the month when the mail was received and the membership fees will be due for that month. If fees have been paid in advance, the association will reimburse the credit balance to the resigning member.

Any member who has not paid his/her membership fees, after being duly called upon to do so, will be considered as having resigned and will be so notified by the executive treasurer if his/her fees are not paid at the latest by the 31st of April of the year following the one when the fees are due. The association reserves the right to enter legal proceedings to recover the fees owed by that member.

B. Expulsion:

The Executive Board can request the expulsion of a member who has infringed the statutes and/or acted in a manner contrary to the interests of the association and/or acted in a manner contrary to the purpose of the association, as defined in Article 2. In such a case, the Executive Board will either address the matter at the next annual General Assembly and proceed to vote for expulsion of the member concerned, after having exposed the reasons to the rest of the members, or will call an extraordinary General Assembly for the same purpose. A two-thirds majority of the members present is required for expulsion of a member, and any member not physically present at the assembly can participate via electronic conference and/or electronic mail.

An expelled member has no right over the social funds of the association or over the reimbursement of his /her fees if they were paid in advance, in accordance with Art. 12 of the law of 21 April 1928 on non-profit making associations, as amended.

Data Protection and Storage Information

All membership data will be stored and processed in accordance with the applicable Luxembourgish laws and regulations. These regulations and further information can be obtained from the Commission Nationale Pour La Protection des Données available at www.cnpd.public.lu.

Membership data will be exchanged only as required with organizations the association is affiliated with, e.g. LCGB, ECA and IFALPA, and only for the purpose required.

By applying for membership the applicant permits the association to store and process data as described above. Further the applicant agrees to receive information concerning the activities of the association and its affiliates such as, but not limited to, emails, newsletters, magazines or SMS text messages. The applicant can at any time request not to receive information by all or any specific means. Such request shall be made in writing by either email, fax or normal letter.
